Teachers worked with colleagues and engaged in learning related to:

- using reflection and feedback to continually increase positive impact on learning
- understanding learner engagement and how to achieve this for all learners through effective learning design
- building engagement with a focus on the interrelationship between the teacher standards, TfEL and EYLF and other relevant frameworks
- using the teacher standards to plan and engage in professional development contextualised to individual needs.

Presenters: Project officers from the Early Career Teacher Development program and the Learning Improvement Division
